Your 2014-2015 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law states that we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA in order to process your eligibility for Federal Student Aid. You must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents and submit the form to the Financial Aid Office. The Financial Aid Office may require further documentation during the verification process to complete and award your financial aid.

B. CHILD SUPPORT PAID

☐ Check this box if the student or spouse, who is a member of the student’s household, paid child support in 2013. List below the name(s) of the person(s) who paid child support, the names of the person(s) to whom the child support was paid, the name(s) of the child(ren) for whom child support was paid, and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2013 for each child. Do not include child support paid for children in your household.

If more space is needed, provide a separate page that included the student’s name and SID number at the top.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding child support paid is not accurate, we may require additional documentation, such as:

- A copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree that shows the amount of child support to be provided.
- A statement from the individual receiving the child support certifying the amount of child support received; or
- Copies of the child support payment checks or money order receipts.
C. RECEIPT OF SNAP BENEFITS

☐ Check this box if someone in the student’s household received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program of SNAP (formerly known as food stamps) any time during the 2012 or 2013 calendar year.

The student’s household includes:

• The student.
• The student’s spouse, if the student is married.
• The student’s or spouse’s children if the student or spouse will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, even if the children do not live with the student.
• Other people if they now live with the student and the student or spouse provided more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half their support through June 30, 2015.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issues the SNAP benefits in 2012 or 2013.

D. HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION STATUS

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student’s high school completion status when the student will begin college in 2014-2015:

• A copy of the student’s high school diploma with graduation date.
• A copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
• A copy of the student’s General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
• An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
• If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school credential for homeschools (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
• If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school credential for homeschools (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office.
