

CODE OF THE ROAD

You will be representing Northwest Florida State College as a student leader and are expected to follow necessary guidelines and policies. All travelers must read this Code of the Road form and sign prior to traveling. Students who fail to do so, will not be able to participate in student travel.

General Conduct:

1. Follow college, hotel, local, state, and federal laws and regulations.
2. Respect others, including hotel guests and roommates.
3. Have the respect of peers and advisors.
4. Do not leave event site without advisor(s) permission.
5. Actively participate in event activities.
6. Follow dress code and other standing rules adopted by event organizers.

Alcohol and Drugs:

1. Abstain from alcoholic beverages regardless of age between departing and returning times.
2. Remove yourself from the company of anyone indulging in alcoholic beverages.
3. Smoke within designated areas.
4. Abstain from illegal substances.

Sleeping Arrangements:

1. Students of opposite sex may not share room or sleeping quarters.
2. Students are responsible for any unauthorized expenses charged to room such as minibar, phone, or damages.
3. Students must reside/sleep in accommodations assigned to you.

Failure to adhere to Code of the Road will result in possible disciplinary procedures including being sent home from the event at your own expense.
