TITLE	INTERNAL ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE
REFERENCE
HISTORY	Local Language Revised May 1988

Local Language

Persons currently on continuing contract who wish to accept or to continue in an administrative assignment shall be granted internal "Administrative Leave" from their prior continuing contract status and shall be placed on annual contract status during the period of the administrative assignment.

Administrative leave shall be an interim, annual status applicable automatically to persons who have previously been on continuing contract who accept or continue in such position(s) as may be categorically designated by the Board as administrative.

A person on administrative leave may request return to or may be assigned to his/her prior continuing contract status by approval of the Board on recommendation of the President.
