Update: March 30, 2016

On Wednesday, March 30, the Northwest Florida State College Board of Trustees deliberated on all three finalist candidates for the position of President at Northwest Florida State College: Dr. Anthony Tricoli, President/CEO, Boys and Girls Club of the Monroe (East Tennessee) Area and Higher Education Consultant, formerly President of Georgia Perimeter College; Dr. Juston Pate, Interim President, Hazard Community and Technical College and Dr. Sasha Jarrell, Interim President, Northwest Florida State College.

The Board decided to terminate the search for the next college President with RPA Inc. and will explore a contract with a new search firm. The Board will meet on Tuesday, April 12 at 4:00 p.m. to evaluate new proposals from new search firms and select members for a Presidential Search Advisory Committee.

Brian Pennington, Chairman, and other members of the board affirmed their confidence in Dr. Jarrell's performance and look forward to her continued leadership as Interim President of the college. The board also commended the current members of the Presidential Search Advisory Committee and their efforts in the search process.

"The fact that the trustees did not choose a candidate today is merely a reflection of the board's commitment to hiring the best candidate to lead the institution at this important juncture in the college's future," said Brian Pennington.

Update: March 17, 2016

Please note the following message from Brian Pennington, Chairman, Northwest Florida State College Board of Trustees: On Wednesday, March 16, the Northwest Florida State College Board of Trustees voted to interview Dr. Sasha Jarrell for the position of college President.

"The board of trustees have voted to interview interim president, Dr. Sasha Jarrell for the permanent position," Pennington said. "Dr. Jarrell is currently serving the college in the role of Interim President. The two finalist candidates, Dr. Juston Pate and Dr. Anthony Tricoli, are still under consideration for the position."

Two candidate forums are scheduled for Monday, March 28 with Dr. Jarrell. An open community forum will be held at 10:00 a.m. and a faculty/staff forum will be held at 2:00 p.m. The Board of Trustees will interview Dr. Jarrell during its meeting on Wednesday, March 30 at 8:30 a.m. Following Dr. Jarrell's interview, the trustees will deliberate to discuss all candidates. All forums and the trustee meeting will be held in the Student Services Center, Room 302.

As chair of the committee, I extend my sincere thanks and gratitude to the members of the Presidential Search Advisory Committee. This search process took us from 130 candidates to our final two who are exceptionally qualified, both having vast leadership experience in post-secondary education.

Update February, 23, 2016:

Please note the following message from Brian Pennington, Chairman, Presidential Search Advisory Committee:

I would like to announce the semi-finalist candidates (in no particular order) for the next President of Northwest Florida State College:

- Dr. Kimberly Brown, Vice-President and Chief of Staff, University of West Florida; American Council of Education Fellow, Samford University;
- Dr. Richard Dawe, President, Ozarka College;
- Dr. Jacquelyn Elliott, President, North Arkansas College;
- Dr. Juston Pate, Interim President, Hazard Community and Technical College;
- Dr. Anthony Tricoli, President/CEO, Boys and Girls Club of the Monroe Area and Higher Education Consultant; formerly President of Georgia Perimeter College;
- Dr. Allen Witt, President, SouthShore Campus of Hillsborough Community College;

Each of these semi-finalists will be interviewed in person at the Destin-Fort Walton Beach Airport by the Presidential Search Advisory Committee and the NWF State College Board of Trustees between February 26-28, depending on schedule and availability.

After these interviews, the Presidential Search Advisory Committee will recommend three to five finalist candidates to be interviewed on campus by the Board of Trustees and other stakeholders of the college March 9-18.

We have been very pleased with the quality of the candidates in our search and I continue to be impressed with the work of the Presidential Search Advisory Committee. The process to find the next President of NWF is indeed a lengthy process, but it is important we find the right candidate with the right experience to lead the college. I believe the college has great things in its future and our community is blessed to have faculty and staff at the college that are passionate about what they do. We are improving the lives of students every day.
