PURPOSE OF POLICY

To authorize the establishment and publication of Student Code of Conduct, Grievance, and Due Process Policy

LOCAL LANGUAGE

In accordance with Florida Statutes 1006.60, 1006.62 and 1006.63, Northwest Florida State College will compile and update annually a student handbook, which includes but is not limited to, codes of conduct and appropriate penalties for violations of rules or regulations by students. Students are subject to federal and state law, respective county and municipal ordinances, and all rules and regulations of the State Board of Education. Violation of these published laws, ordinances, or rules and regulations may subject the violator to appropriate action by the institution's authorities.

In accordance with Florida Statute 1006.50 and State Board Rule 6A-19.008, Northwest Florida State College will compile and update annually a student handbook that includes, but is not limited to student rights and responsibilities, appeals processes available to students, and a roster of contact persons within the administrative staff available to respond to student inquiries. The handbook shall also list the legal and institution-specific sanctions that will be imposed upon students who violate the law or institutional policies.
