INSTRUCTOR COMMUNICATION

Check your Canvas Class Site at a minimum of twice per day.

All course work, including exams and graded assignments will be posted on Canvas.

Messages to all class members will be sent through Canvas and/or Raidernet email.

All students are expected to be actively engaged in online/hybrid_classes, watching / attending online lectures being provided live and recorded through Zoom video documentaries and other outside source are also available to students to enhance their educational experience.

Exams and other graded work assignments will be posted one week before the due date.

Be sure to review assignments and due dates on the class schedule.

All assignments must be submitted to the instructor via Canvas on the posted due date. Late assignments will be penalized 10 points.

For assignments not received, this instructor will send a text message or e-mail to remind the student of a missing assignment/grade. You need to make Professor Weatherford's contact in your phone 850-217-9676.

Once the instructor receives your graded assignments, an e-mail will be sent confirming your work was received. If you do not receive a response from this instructor, your work was not received. Please double check the forwarding e-mail address and send again. The instructor's college e-mail is weatherd@nwfsc.edu.

All assignments will be graded in a timely manner (within 48 hours). Your grade with comments will be posted on Canvas. Do check your grades weekly to make sure they are posted. If a grade is missing contact Professor Weatherford.

Phone calls will be accepted and encouraged for those needing assistance anytime during the semester: 850-217-9676 cell phone. Use my college e-mail (weatherd@nwfsc.edu) or contact me at okaloosadave51@yahoo.com, or through Blackboard and text messaging (850-217-9676). Your phone number provided to the college will be my text contact number. Please place my cell phone number into your phone so any text sent by me will be identified (please identify yourself when texting back to Professor Weatherford).

CLASSROOM CONDUCT

Electronic devices must not distract from learning. Courtesy to the professor and other students requires that phones be on vibrate or silent mode during class. No student should initiate conversations, including texts, during class activities. Use of electronic communication devices during examinations or other graded activities may constitute grounds for disciplinary action; such devices must be completely out of sight during exams or other assessments. Where emergency or employment situations require access to electronic communication services, arrangements may be made in advance with the instructor.

INCOMPLETE GRADES

At the discretion of the instructor, an incomplete grade ("I") may be awarded when the student is unable to finish the required work because of unforeseen extenuating circumstances such as illness or TDY assignment. To receive an "I" grade, the student must have successfully completed a significant portion of the required coursework (70%) and be able to finish the remaining work without attending class. An "I" grade will automatically convert to a grade of "F" if the student does not complete the remainder of the coursework by the established deadline.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

TECHNICAL SKILLS AND SPECIALIZED TECHNOLOGY

If this course is entirely online. Students must provide their device(s) to access and complete this class online. In addition to baseline word processing skills and sending/receiving emails with attachments, students will be expected to search the Internet and upload/download files. If you encounter technology challenges using course resources in the Learning Management System, email the Center for Innovative Teaching and Learning at online@nwfsc.edu or call 850-729-6464.

EMERGENCY COLLEGE CLOSURE

This course's schedule, requirements, and procedures are subject to change in the event of unusual or extraordinary circumstances. If the College closes for inclement weather or another emergency, any exams, presentations, or assignments previously scheduled during the closure period will automatically be rescheduled for the first regular class meeting held once the college reopens. If changes to graded activities are required, students will not be penalized due to the adjustments but will be responsible for meeting revised deadlines and course requirements.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY TOOLS

Northwest Florida State College subscribes to Turnitin, an online plagiarism detection and prevention service. By enrolling in this class, students consent to upload their papers to Turnitin, where they will be checked for plagiarism. Papers submitted to Turnitin may be saved as source documents within these databases to detect plagiarism in other papers. Please note: All assignments submitted in this course are analyzed for plagiarism and originality.

ACADEMIC CONTINUITY PLAN

NWFSC is dedicated to protecting the health and well-being of its students, staff, and faculty. The College is dedicated to working with faculty and students to ensure timely course and program completion during emergencies. In the event of a College closure, the format of this course may be modified to enable completion of the course through other means, including but not limited to online course delivery through online classrooms. Check your RaiderNet College email and LMS classroom online for any updates.

WELCOME TO CLASS

This is Professor David Weatherford, and I want to take this opportunity to welcome you to my American History One Class. This class will be divided into twelve lectures: 1) When Worlds Collide; 2) The Age of Discovery; 3) The Culture of Colonial America; 4) Age of Revolution; 5) The Foundation Years; 6) Jeffersonian America; 7) The Era of Good Feelings; 8) Jacksonian America; 9) Antebellum America; 10) The Road to Disunion; 11) The Civil War; 12) Reconstruction.

Each lecture group will have its own 100-point assignment. All these graded assignments will be completed at home and posted on Canvas as a word document.

I want you all to spend some time going over the material posted on Canvas that will successfully lead you through this class. Here you will find the class syllabus, the class calendar, the term sheet for taking excellent notes, the class lecture notes, the media selection of fun documentaries to watch, and the recorded YouTube lectures as we proceed through class.

I want this class to be a wonderful educational experience for all my students. If you have any problems or need help with any of the assignments, I am only a text, phone call (850-217-9676) or e-mail away.

Thank you for choosing NWFSC for your education—and welcome to class!
