COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course description as provided by the state of Florida:

This course introduces students to rhetorical concepts and audience-centered approaches to writing including composing processes, language conventions and style, and critical analysis and engagement with written texts and other forms of communication.

COURSE-LEVEL STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Florida Department of Education Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will apply rhetorical knowledge to communicate for a range of audiences and purposes.
2. Students will employ critical thinking to analyze forms of communication.
3. Students will engage in writing processes that involve drafting, revising, and reflecting.

NWFSC Course-Level Student Learning Outcomes

1. Student composes formal assignments applying the conventions of Standard American English in written and/or oral communication.

- What this means to you: You will improve your use of standard American English, which will help you succeed in other college courses and in your professional life after college.

- How this will be achieved:

- o Essays

2. Student understands and applies the concepts of purpose, audience, and rhetorical situation in written and/or oral communication.

- What this means to you: You will consider who your audience is and what the writing situation calls for in order to communicate clearly and persuasively with your reader/audience. This is another skill essential to success in other college courses and in your professional life after college.

- How this will be achieved:

- o Essays

3. Student applies basic principles of logic and critical thinking as evidenced through written and/or oral communication.

- What this means to you: Writing shows your thinking, so if your thinking is muddy and confused, your writing will be too. By learning to write clearly, you are pushing yourself to think more clearly, logically, and critically. These are skills that employers are demanding in their employees.

- How this will be achieved:

- o Essays

4. Student effectively integrates and appropriately documents selected ideas, themes, and concepts from a variety of print and/or electronic sources.

· What this means to you: You will learn how to give credit to other people whose words and ideas you incorporate into your writing. This means you won't steal, and not stealing is essential to both ethical living and professional success.

· How this will be achieved:

o ESSAYS

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS AND RESOURCES

NWFSC aims for excellence in education and scholarly pursuits. Campus policies and procedures support this goal by protecting the health, safety, welfare, and property of the College and its students. To view all campus policies, please see the college catalog. Several essential policies are provided below with the corresponding link to the full policy for your review.

NWFSC POLICY	DESCRIPTION
Academic Integrity	Students are expected to behave responsibly as members of the College community and be honest and forthright in their academic endeavors. This includes the use of generative AI tools. Using genAI in any form to substantially complete an assessment is prohibited, except where explicitly allowed by the instructor. Any time the instructor suspects there is a violation of Academic Integrity or there is a reported Academic Integrity Incident, the instructor is required to investigate it as outlined in the Academic Integrity section of the handbook (linked to the left). The instructor will provide information to the student about the procedure, the complaint, the findings, and any consequence imposed. Students are also expected to behave professionally and refrain from disrupting other students' learning environments.
Accommodations	The Accommodation Resource Center at Northwest Florida State College is committed to providing equal access and opportunities for educational success to all students with disabilities as guided by the American Disabilities Act and other disability-related laws.
Attendance	Regular attendance and participation in the course is expected. All students should adhere to the College calendar. For dual enrolled students, high school holidays may not be College holidays.
Tutoring Services	Tutoring services are available in person and online.
Counseling Services	All actively enrolled students can receive an initial assessment and up to five therapeutic sessions with a Behavioral Health provider at no cost to the student.
Student Code of Conduct	Students are expected to adhere to the rules, regulations, and policies outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.
Student Complaints	NWFSC desires to resolve student grievances, complaints, and concerns expeditiously, fairly, and in an amicable manner. A student who desires to resolve a grievance may initiate the resolution process using the information in the link provided to the left.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

All students should review the Student Rights and Responsibilities section of the Student Handbook to understand their role as a student.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

TECHNICAL SKILLS AND SPECIALIZED TECHNOLOGY FOR ONLINE COURSES

This course is entirely online. Students must provide their device(s) to access and complete this class online. In addition to baseline word processing skills and sending/receiving emails with attachments, students will be expected to search the Internet and upload/download files. If you encounter technology challenges using course resources in the Learning Management System, email the Center for Innovative Teaching and Learning at online@nwfsc.edu or call 850-729-6464.

EMERGENCY COLLEGE CLOSURE

This course's schedule, requirements, and procedures are subject to change in the event of unusual or extraordinary circumstances. If the College closes for inclement weather or another emergency, any exams, presentations, or assignments previously scheduled during the closure period will automatically be rescheduled for the first regular class meeting held once the college reopens. If changes to graded activities are required, students will not be penalized due to the adjustments but will be responsible for meeting revised deadlines and course requirements.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY TOOLS

Northwest Florida State College subscribes to Turnitin, an online plagiarism detection and prevention service. By enrolling in this class, students consent to upload their papers to Turnitin, where they will be checked for plagiarism. Papers submitted to Turnitin may be saved as source documents within these databases to detect plagiarism in other papers. Please note: All assignments submitted in this course are analyzed for plagiarism and originality.

ACADEMIC CONTINUITY PLAN

NWFSC is dedicated to protecting the health and well-being of its students, staff, and faculty. The College is dedicated to working with faculty and students to ensure timely course and program completion during emergencies. In the event of a College closure, the format of this course may be modified to enable completion of the course through other means, including but not limited to online course delivery through online classrooms. Check your RaiderNet College email and LMS classroom online for any updates.
