EMERGENCY COLLEGE CLOSURE

This course's schedule, requirements, and procedures are subject to change in the event of unusual or extraordinary circumstances. If the College closes for inclement weather or another emergency, any exams, presentations, or assignments previously scheduled during the closure period will automatically be rescheduled for the first regular class meeting held once the college reopens. If changes to graded activities are required, students will not be penalized due to the adjustments but will be responsible for meeting revised deadlines and course requirements.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY TOOLS

Northwest Florida State College subscribes to Turnitin, an online plagiarism detection and prevention service. By enrolling in this class, students consent to upload their papers to Turnitin, where they will be checked for plagiarism. Papers submitted to Turnitin may be saved as source documents within these databases to detect plagiarism in other papers. Please note: All assignments submitted in this course are analyzed for plagiarism and originality.

ACADEMIC CONTINUITY PLAN

NWFSC is dedicated to protecting the health and well-being of its students, staff, and faculty. The College is dedicated to working with faculty and students to ensure timely course and program completion during emergencies. In the event of a College closure, the format of this course may be modified to enable completion of the course through other means, including but not limited to online course delivery through online classrooms. Check your RaiderNet College email and LMS classroom online for any updates.

WELCOME TO CLASS

This course is an introduction to the world of theatre, what we do and what has been done throughout history to put on a show. The textbook will give you a historical perspective, as well as cultural implications of a wide variety of theatrical styles. Throughout the course you will gain insight to the following:

1. Basic theatre terminology
2. Theatrical performance elements
3. Theatrical technical elements
4. Historical periods in theatre
5. Humankind's role in theatre

It is my sincere hope that you will develop your own unique relationship to this classic and contemporary art form. If you are so inclined, you may even pursue a career in the theatre, as an actor, director, designer or technician. Whatever level of your involvement, you will soon be more knowledgeable and appreciative whether as a participant or an observer!

Thank you for choosing NWFSC for your education—and welcome to class!
