

English Proficiency Exam Exemption Request

International applicants for admission to Northwest Florida State College (NWF) are required to submit test score reports from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). Score reports must be sent to the NWF Student Success Division directly from the testing agency; student copies are not accepted.

Minimum Score Requirement: 61 iBT

Applicants may request exemption from the language exam requirement if they meet and can provide documentation to support one of the following conditions:

- Native Speaker of English
- Earned a grade of C or better in a course equivalent to NWF's ENC 1101 or higher at a regionally accredited US institution
- Earned an associate's, bachelor's, or higher degree from a regionally accredited US institution

Applicant Name:

Application Term: Fall Spring Year

Application Type: Certificate Associate Bachelor

I am requesting exemption from the English Proficiency Exam Requirement because:

I am a native speaker of English. (Must be permanent resident of English-speaking country.)

I have earned a grade of C or better in a course equivalent to ENC 1101 at a regionally accredited US institution. (Must be demonstrated on official transcripts.)

I have earned an associate's degree or higher credential from a regionally accredited US institution. (Must be demonstrated on official transcripts.)

Other:

Applicant Signature

Date

This request will be considered by the international student advising authorities of NWF State College and a decision will be communicated in writing via email and/or on your application for admission to the college.