The National Society of Leadership and Success (NSLS) at Northwest Florida State College

The NSLS is the largest leadership honor society in the United States, with 700+ chapters and over 1.3 million members. In addition to recognizing academic excellence, the NSLS is the only honor society to provide its members with accredited leadership development training. Nomination to become a member is a prestigious honor, awarded only to a select percent of students.

Our NSLS chapter at Northwest Florida was started in 2018 and is a Registered Student Organization (RSO).

Students are selected based on exemplary academic achievement. With your membership, you'll gain access to a tight-knit community and exclusive resources to help you every step of the way—in college and beyond. By accepting your nomination, you will be well-positioned to maximize your leadership potential and distinguish yourself in a competitive job market.

Learn more about the NSLS and the many great benefits you'll enjoy:

- ✓ $350,000 in scholarships & financial aid. Plus assistance with books and tuition.
- ✓ Learn from industry leaders the secrets to their success at our live events.
- ✓ Save hundreds of dollars each year with our partner discounts.
- ✓ Meet new friends and make lifelong connections (on-campus and virtually).
- ✓ Overcome challenges with success coaches guiding you every step of the way.
- ✓ Stand out to employers with the NSLS job board and letters of recommendation.

Many NSLS members earn their leadership certification in just a single semester but use their benefits far beyond college—including our exclusive job board and personal letters of recommendation to stand out to employers.

The NSLS is committed to providing a leadership program that helps students achieve personal growth, self-empowerment, and career success. Hear directly from current members describing how their NSLS experience has changed their life.
