The National Society of Leadership and Success (NSLS) at Northwest Florida State College

The NSLS is the largest leadership honor society in the United States, with 700+ chapters and over 1.4 million members. In addition to recognizing academic excellence, the NSLS is the only honor society to provide its members with accredited leadership development training. The Northwest Florida State College NSLS chapter was started in 2018 and is a Registered Student Organization (RSO).

In addition to recognizing academic excellence, the NSLS is the only honor society to provide its members with accredited leadership development training. Students are selected based on exemplary academic achievement. With your membership, you'll gain access to a tight-knit community and exclusive resources to help you every step of the way—in college and beyond. By accepting your nomination, you will be well-positioned to maximize your leadership potential and distinguish yourself in a competitive job market.

As of 2021, NSLS has 731 members who have access to:

- More than \$400,000 in scholarships.
- An exclusive NSLS job board.
- A personalized letter of recommendation.

The NSLS leadership program teaches the interpersonal skills that employers seek to give you an edge in the job market. Hear directly from current members as they share how their experience has changed their life.

If you become a member, some of the other benefits are:

- Learn from exceptional leaders, like former President Barack Obama, during exclusive Speaker Broadcasts.
- Meet new friends and make lifelong connections (on-campus and virtually).
- Overcome challenges with success coaches shortcutting your way to success.
- Access to private networking events.
