credit must be admitted to the College and must complete the appropriate credit request processes. Credit shall be awarded upon verification of course completion and/or certification and may be contingent upon completion of subsequent college level courses, faculty interview, student demonstration, portfolio or other validation process.

Credits earned through this arrangement shall not be recorded on the student's college transcript until the student has completed at least fifteen credits of coursework at the College. The fifteen credits may be any combination of college credit, college preparatory credit, or vocational (career-technical) credit. Credits earned through dual enrollment may be counted in satisfying this requirement. Determination of credits to be awarded through this arrangement rests with the College. Office of Academic Records and Enrollment and applicable Academic Department at NWF State College.

Collaboration in Teacher Preparation Activities

The District Articulation Committee will comprise a steering committee to develop plans and recommendations regarding mechanisms and strategies for improving the preparation of elementary, middle, and high school teachers. The primary goal of the plan will be effective collaboration among school districts, postsecondary institutions, and practicing educators to improve teaching in Florida's public schools. The plans and recommendations will address professional development activities that focus upon local and state needs and that respond to state, national and district policy and program priorities; among the areas to be targeted are technology, ESOL and Florida Standards applicable to mathematics and science.

In addition, the College will work with the appropriate District personnel to develop content for and to disseminate information on subject area workshops, FTCE review classes, and similar activities.

Statutory Compliance

If any conflict exists between the provisions of this agreement and Florida rule or law, the provisions of law shall prevail.

Annual Review of Agreement

The Superintendent of Schools and the President of Northwest Florida State College shall review the agreement on an annual basis.
